May is known as a month of transition. If you live in the northern hemisphere, the fresh cold winds are gone, and the rains of early spring are here.

By the time May comes around, the spring flowers are blooming, birds are chirping, and life is starting to seem a little more joyful day by day!

If you're on the other side of the world, in the southern hemisphere, then it's a time when summer is long gone. The fall winds have swept by, and the nights are getting colder and darker.

It's a time of change, yet still delightfully warm.

May is not only a time of change, it is also time for flowers.

The old nursery rhyme reminds us, “April showers bring May flowers.” What it doesn't mention is that those flowers will bloom only if you plant them! Wildflowers delight our senses with their colorful blooms and delicate fragrances, but they also play valuable roles in nature. The first full week in May is Wildflower Week, a good reminder to plant wildflowers for all to enjoy.

Mother's day

The Influence of a Mother

The staff here at Fremont Fountain View would like to wish all the Mother's a very happy Mother's Day.

Proverbs 31:26 tells us that a great wife and mom "opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue."

A mother's presence in her children's lives means more to them than we know, and sets the foundation for their relationship in years to come.

Have you ever thought about all of the roles that your mother filled while you were growing up? I just jotted down a few this week - and this list is by no means exhaustive. Nurse, counselor, spiritual advisor, educator, nutritionist, accountant, transportation center, maid, peacemaker, entertainer, and I came up with those in just a few minutes. There are so many other roles that our mothers fulfill each and every day.

And I'll tell you, after all that our mother's do for us while we're growing up and even after we get out of the house, they deserve at least one day out of the year to be honored and showered with gifts, calls, cards, and most importantly showered with our love.

So don't forget Mom May 8th. Shower her with the love she deserves.

Flower Basket Fundraiser

Reminder that all orders for Memorial day Hanging baskets need to be placed by May 20th

See Jeff, Shelley, or Nicole to turn in your order form.
